

Evidensia learning event | Addressing smallholder poverty: the role of sustainability standards

Description

There are an estimated 500 million smallholder farmer families globally, many of whom make up a large portion of the world's poor. With 2030 fast approaching, achieving SDG 1's target of eradicating extreme poverty for all people necessitates addressing smallholder poverty with urgency.

This Evidensia learning event, in partnership with IISD (International Institute for Sustainable Development) and the Living Income Community of Practice, explores what role voluntary sustainability standards can play in achieving this and how.
