

Tobacco is a threat to a just and sustainable development – EURACTIV.com

Description

The EU is preparing a due diligence law by June 2021 to hold companies accountable for their impact on people and the planet. There is an urgent need to address the human rights violations, child labour, environmental impact, and disinformation of the tobacco industry, write Helen Stjerna, Farida...

Read the full article at: www.euractiv.com

Category

1. TheCircularEconomy.com

Tags

1. #tobacco

Date Created

June 11, 2021

Author

thecirculareconomyteam

default watermark